Media Release - ACI Webinar - Bishop Peter Cullinane: The mission and vocation of lay people - Saturday 6 April 2024

For our April ACI webinar, our presenter will be Bishop Peter Cullinane, emeritus bishop of Palmerston North, Aotearoa-New Zealand, who address the theme “Mission and vocation of lay people”

The webinar will take place on Saturday 6 April 2024 at 10am Sydney time, 12 noon Wellington time.

Bishop Peter Cullinane

Born on 29 November 1967, Bishop Peter was the first bishop of the Diocese of Palmerston North which was created in 1980.

After many years of service, he retired in 2012 but still continues to be an active member of the Diocese. Bishop Peter is a respected writer and leader of retreats who, in his retirement, is still busy at local, national, and international levels.

He completed a licentiate in sacred theology at the Angelicum in Rome in 1964 and a master's in theology in Otago in 1980.

He served as president of the New Zealand Catholic Bishops' Conference between 1997 and 2003 and as a member of the Episcopal Board of the International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) between 1983 and 2003

In 1990, Bishop Peter was awarded the New Zealand 1990 Commemoration Medal. In the 2006 New Year Honours, he was appointed a Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit, for services to the community.
