FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JOIN US FOR THE 2024 CAMPION COLLEGE FESTIVAL

SYDNEY, AUSTRALIA — Campion College invites you to the 2024 Campion College Festival, a unique community event that goes beyond the typical open day experience. Taking place from 10 AM to 4 PM on Saturday, October 26, this festival promises a day filled with excitement, discovery, and entertainment for all ages.

Located in the heart of Toongabbie, Campion College is Australia's first liberal arts college, offering a holistic education that nurtures critical thinking, articulate communication, and a deep appreciation for history, literature, philosophy, and theology. The Campion College Festival is your chance to experience our vibrant academic community in a fun and engaging way.

Festival Highlights:

- Family Fun: Test your luck at the chocolate wheel, enjoy a variety of carnival games, and watch the kids delight in thrilling rides and free face painting.
- Tours and Talks: Explore our beautiful campus through guided tours, including a visit to The Gina Rinehart Library, known for its stunning stained-glass skylight. Learn about the liberal arts and what makes our educational program unique.
- Community Vibes: Enjoy live musical performances, browse through our farmers market, and discover hidden gems at our second-hand book sale. The Campion Café will be serving a sausage sizzle, and there will be plenty of festival stalls to explore.
- Special Attractions: Car enthusiasts can marvel at the muscle car show, while kids can get up close with emergency vehicles. Participate in raffles and other activities for a chance to win exciting prizes.

This festival is more than just an opportunity to explore Campion College; it's a celebration of community spirit and a fun-filled day for everyone. Whether you're curious about our educational programs or simply looking for a delightful way to spend your Saturday, the Campion College Festival offers something for everyone.

Your participation in this event will also contribute to the Campion College Scholarship Fund, helping to make our liberal arts education accessible to deserving students.
