

The NATIONAL COUNCIL OF PRIESTS will hold a convention in Sydney from 17th till 19th March, 2025. It will be held at the Great Southern Hotel in Haymarket. 102 priests, diocesan and religious, have registered to attend, making this the biggest national gathering of Catholic clergy since covid. It will be a celebration of priesthood, with much sharing by the participants. It will also be an opportunity to consider the future of the organisation. A highlight will be the Convention Mass to be celebrated at nearby St. Peter Julian's Church.
